I have lived in RV for 41 years. I have served the public as a district Public Health Nurse for Mendocino County for 14 years. I also co-founded and directed the Mendocino College Registered Nurse program from which I recently retired after 17 years. I still practice part-time as an Family Nurse Practitioner for Adventist Health Rural Health clinic. The health, safety, and welfare of my community is of utmost importance to me. I believe I have a demonstrated commitment to these principles that make me suitable as an alternate member of the RVMAC
