

Where is the testing and contact tracing on the Coast? Where is the plan for dealing with the spike in Corona virus cases that will result from opening up tourism, businesses and other facilities during this pandemic?

Why do we still not have a competent, full-time Public Health Officer during this historic crisis?

###