

PROCLAMATION

OF THE

MENDOCINO COUNTY BOARD OF SUPERVISORS RECOGNIZING APRIL AS NATIONAL CHILD ABUSE PREVENTION MONTH

WHEREAS, in Federal fiscal year 2022, 3,096,101 reports were made to child protective services across the Country; and

WHEREAS, in Mendocino County in the year 2024, 2,244 suspected child abuse/neglect reports were received with 1,067 needing investigation resulting in 225 substantiated allegations. Mendocino County Child Welfare and community partners support on average monthly, 271 children, youth and nonminor dependents involved in the Juvenile Dependency Court; and

WHEREAS, child abuse and neglect is a serious problem affecting every segment of our community, and finding solutions requires input and action from everyone; and

WHEREAS, our children are our most valuable resources and will shape the future of Mendocino County; and

WHEREAS, child abuse can have long-term psychological, emotional, and physical effects that have lasting consequences for victims of abuse; and

WHEREAS, protective factors are conditions that reduce or eliminate risk and promote the social, emotional, and developmental well-being of children; and

WHEREAS, effective child abuse prevention activities succeed because of the partnerships created between child welfare professionals, education, health, community- and faith-based organizations, businesses, law enforcement agencies, and families; and

WHEREAS, communities must make every effort to promote programs and activities that create strong and thriving children and families; and

WHEREAS, we acknowledge that we must work together as a community to increase awareness about child abuse and contribute to promote the social and emotional well-being of children and families in a safe, stable, and nurturing environment; and

WHEREAS, prevention remains the best defense for our children and families.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Board of Supervisors of the County of Mendocino, hereby proclaims April 2025, as “National Child Abuse Prevention Month” in Mendocino County and urge all citizens to recognize this month by dedicating ourselves to the task of improving the quality of life for all children and families
