CONTRACTOR shall be solely liable for and obligated to pay directly all applicable payroll taxes (including federal and state income taxes) or contributions for unemployment insurance or old age pensions or annuities which are imposed by any governmental entity in connection with the labor used or which are measured by wages, salaries or other remuneration paid to its officers, agents or employees and agrees to indemnify and hold COUNTY harmless from any and all liability which COUNTY may incur because of CONTRACTOR's failure to pay such amounts.

In carrying out the work contemplated herein, CONTRACTOR shall comply with all applicable federal and state workers' compensation and liability laws and regulations with respect to the officers, agents and/or employees conducting and participating in the work; and agrees that such officers, agents, and/or employees will be considered as Independent Contractors and shall not be treated or considered in any way as officers, agents and/or employees of COUNTY.

CONTRACTOR does, by this Agreement, agree to perform his/her said work and functions at all times in strict accordance with all applicable federal, state and COUNTY laws, including but not limited to prevailing wage laws, ordinances, regulations, titles, departmental procedures and currently approved methods and practices in his/her field and that the sole interest of COUNTY is to ensure that said service shall be performed and rendered in a competent, efficient, timely and satisfactory manner and in accordance with the standards required by the COUNTY agency concerned.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the COUNTY determines that pursuant to state and federal law CONTRACTOR is an employee for purposes of income tax withholding, COUNTY may upon two (2) week's written notice to CONTRACTOR, withhold from payments to CONTRACTOR hereunder federal and state income taxes and pay said sums to the federal and state governments.

2. INDEMNIFICATION: To the furthest extent permitted by law (including without limitation California Civil Code sections 2782 and 2782.8, if applicable), CONTRACTOR shall assume the defense of, indemnify, and hold harmless the COUNTY, its officers, agents, and employees, from and against any and all claims, demands, damages, costs, liabilities, and losses whatsoever alleged to be occurring or resulting in connection with the CONTRACTOR'S performance or its obligations under this AGREEMENT, unless arising out of the sole negligence or willful misconduct of COUNTY. "CONTRACTOR'S performance" includes CONTRACTOR'S action or inaction and the action or inaction of CONTRACTOR'S officers, employees, agents and subcontractors.

32. SEVERABILITY: If a court of competent jurisdiction holds any provision of this Agreement to be illegal, unenforceable, or invalid in whole or in part for any reason, the validity and enforceability of the remaining provisions, or portions of them, will not be affected, unless an essential purpose of this Agreement would be defeated by the loss of the illegal, unenforceable, or invalid provision.
33. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY WARRANTY: CONTRACTOR warrants and represents that it has secured all rights and licenses necessary for any and all materials, services, processes, software, or hardware ("CONTRACTOR PRODUCTS") to be provided by CONTRACTOR in the performance of this AGREEMENT, including but not limited to any copyright, trademark, patent, trade secret, or right of publicity rights. CONTRACTOR further warrants and represents that it knows of no allegations, claims, or threatened claims that the CONTRACTOR PRODUCTS provided to COUNTY under this Agreement infringe any patent, copyright, trademark or other proprietary right. In the event that any third party asserts a claim of infringement against the COUNTY relating to a CONTRACTOR PRODUCT, CONTRACTOR shall indemnify and defend the COUNTY pursuant to Paragraph 2 of this AGREEMENT.

In the case of any such claim of infringement, CONTRACTOR shall either, at its option, (1) procure for COUNTY the right to continue using the CONTRACTOR Products; or (2) replace or modify the CONTRACTOR Products so that that they become non-infringing, but equivalent in functionality and performance.

34. ELECTRONIC COPIES: The parties agree that an electronic copy, including facsimile copy, email, or scanned copy of the executed Agreement, shall be deemed, and shall have the same legal force and effect as, an original document.
35. COOPERATION WITH COUNTY: CONTRACTOR shall cooperate with COUNTY and COUNTY staff in the performance of all work hereunder.
36. PERFORMANCE STANDARD: CONTRACTOR shall perform all work hereunder in a manner consistent with the level of competency and standard of care normally observed by a person practicing in CONTRACTOR's profession. COUNTY has relied upon the professional ability and training of CONTRACTOR as a material inducement to enter into this Agreement. CONTRACTOR hereby agrees to provide all services under this Agreement in accordance with generally accepted professional practices and standards of care, as well as the requirements of applicable Federal, State, and local laws, it being understood that acceptance of CONTRACTOR's work by COUNTY shall not operate as a waiver or release. If COUNTY determines that any of CONTRACTOR's work is not in accordance with such level of competency and standard of care, COUNTY, in its sole discretion, shall have the right to do any or all of the following: (a) require CONTRACTOR to meet with COUNTY to review the quality of the work and resolve matters of concern; (b) require CONTRACTOR to repeat the work at no additional charge until it is satisfactory; (c) terminate this Agreement pursuant to the provisions of paragraph 19 (Termination) or (d) pursue any and all other remedies at law or in equity.
37. ATTORNEYS' FEES: In any action to enforce or interpret the terms of this Agreement, including but not limited to any action for declaratory relief, each party shall be solely responsible for and bear its own attorneys' fees, regardless of which party prevails.

In accordance with 45 CFR, upon County's knowledge of a material breach or violation by Contractor of the agreement between County and the Contractor, County shall:

EXHIBIT E

DEFICIT REDUCTION ACT – OBLIGATIONS OF COUNTY

In accordance with Section 1902(a) of the Social Security Act, the County provides the following detailed information about the Federal False Claims Act and the California False Claims Act.

THE FEDERAL FALSE CLAIMS ACT

The Federal False Claims Act (“FCA”) helps the federal government combat fraud and recover losses resulting from fraud in federal programs, purchases, or contracts. 31 U.S. Code sections §§ 3729-3733.

Actions that violate the FCA include:

- Knowingly submitting (or causing to be submitted) a false claim to the Government or the Armed Forces of the United States (the “Armed Forces”) for payment or approval;
- Knowingly making or using (or causing to be made or used) a false record or statement to get a false claim paid or approved by the Government;
- Conspiring to get a false claim allowed or paid by the Government;
- Delivering (or causing to be delivered) less property than the amount of the receipt, where the person with possession or control of the Government money or property intends to deceive the agency or conceal the property;
- Making or delivering a receipt without completely knowing that the receipt is true, where the person authorized to make or deliver the receipt intends to defraud the Government;
- Knowingly buying or receiving public property from an officer or employee of the Government or a member of the Armed Forces who has no legal right to sell or pledge the property; or
- Knowingly making or using a false record to conceal, avoid, or decrease an obligation to pay money or transmit property to the Government.

“Knowing” and “Knowingly” means a person:

- Has actual knowledge of the information;
- Acts in deliberate ignorance of the truth or falsity of the information; or
- Acts in reckless disregard of the truth or falsity of the information. No proof of specific intent to defraud is required.

“Claim” includes any request or demand for money or property (including those made under contract) to the Government or to a contractor, grantee, or other recipient, if any portion of the requested money or property is funded by or will be reimbursed by the Government.

A person or organization may be liable for:

- A civil penalty $5,500 to $11,000 for each false claim;
- Three times the amount of damages sustained by the Government due to the violations; and
- The costs of a civil suit for recovery penalties or damages.

The court may reduce the treble damages if:

- The person committing the violation voluntarily disclosed all information known to him or her to the U.S. officials responsible for investigating false claims violations within thirty days of obtaining the information;
- The person fully cooperated with any Government investigation; and
- No criminal prosecution, or civil or administrative action had been commenced at the time of the person's disclosure, and the person had no actual knowledge of an investigation into such violation.

Actions by Private Persons or Qui Tam Plaintiffs

An individual also has the right to file a civil suit for him or herself and for the Government. The suit must be filed in the name of the Government. The suit is filed and served on the Government. The suit and all information are filed under seal, and most remain under seal for at least sixty days. The suit may be dismissed only if the court and the Attorney General consent to the dismissal in writing.

If a qui tam plaintiff alleges a false claims violation, the complaint and a written disclosure of the evidence and information that the person possesses must be served on the Government. Once the action is filed, no person other than the Government is allowed to intervene or file a lawsuit based on the same facts.

Rights of the Parties to Qui tam Actions

If the Government decides to file a civil suit, it assumes responsibility for prosecuting the action and is not bound by the acts of the qui tam plaintiff. However, the qui tam plaintiff has the right to continue as a party to the action, subject to certain limitations. If the Government decides not to file a civil suit, the qui tam plaintiff still has the right to proceed with a lawsuit. The Government can intervene later upon a showing of good cause.

Award to Qui tam Plaintiff

If the Government prosecutes a case initiated by a qui tam plaintiff and obtains an award or settlement, the qui tam plaintiff will receive between 15 and 25 percent of the recovery, depending on his or her contribution to the case. If the case is based primarily on information other than the disclosures of the qui tam plaintiff, the award cannot be more than 10 percent of the recovery.

If the Government decides not to intervene and the qui tam plaintiff successfully litigates the action, he or she will receive between 25 and 30 percent of the award or settlement. In either case, the court will award the qui tam plaintiff reasonable expenses and attorney's fees and costs.

If the court finds that the qui tam plaintiff planned and initiated the violation upon which the civil suit was based, it may reduce the share of the recovery that the person would otherwise receive. If the qui tam plaintiff is convicted of criminal conduct, he or she will be dismissed from the lawsuit and will not receive any monetary award.

If the court finds the defendant not guilty and the claim frivolous in a suit conducted by a qui tam plaintiff, the court may award the defendant reasonable costs and attorney fees.

Certain Actions Barred

An individual cannot bring a qui tam action against a member of Congress, a member of the judiciary, or a senior executive branch official based on evidence already known to the Government.

An individual cannot bring a qui tam suit based on allegations in a civil suit or an administrative proceeding in which the Government is already a party.

An individual cannot bring a qui tam action based on the public disclosure of allegations unless he or she is the original source (e.g., an individual with direct and independent knowledge of the information on which the allegations are based who has voluntarily provided the information to the Government before filing a civil action). Public disclosure includes disclosure in a criminal, civil, or administrative hearing; in a congressional, administrative, or GAO report, hearing, audit, or investigation; or from the news media.

Whistleblower Protection

An employee who has been discharged, demoted, suspended, threatened, harassed, or in any way discriminated against by his or her employer because of involvement in a false claims disclosure is entitled to all relief necessary to make the employee whole, including:

- Reinstatement with the same seniority status that the employee would have had but for the discrimination;
- Two times the amount of back pay plus interest; and
- Compensation for any special damage sustained because of the discrimination (including litigation costs and reasonable attorney's fees).
- The protected false claims activities include investigation for, initiation of, testimony for, or assistance in a false claims action that has been or will be filed. An employee is entitled to bring an action in the district court for such relief.

THE CALIFORNIA FALSE CLAIMS ACT

The California False Claims Act ("CFCA") applies to fraud involving state, city, county or other local government funds. The CFCA encourages voluntary disclosure of fraudulent activities by rewarding individuals who report fraud and allowing courts to waive penalties for organizations that voluntarily disclose false claims. California Government Code sections §§ 12650-12655.

Actions that violate the CFCA include:

- Knowingly submitting (or causing to be submitted) a false claim for payment or approval;
- Knowingly making or using (or causing to be made or used) a false record or statement to get a false claim paid or approved;
- Conspiring to get a false claim allowed or paid by the state or by any political subdivision;
- Benefiting from an inadvertent submission of a false claim, subsequently discovering the falsity of the claim, and failing to disclose to the state or political subdivision within a reasonable time after discovery;
- Delivering less property than the amount of the receipt, where the person has possession or control of public property;
- Knowingly making or delivering a false receipt, where the person is authorized to deliver a document;
- Knowingly buying or receiving (as a pledge of an obligation or debt) public property from any person who has no legal right to sell or pledge the property; or
- Knowingly making or using a record to conceal, avoid, or decrease an obligation to pay money or transmit property to the state or local government.

"Knowingly" means the person or organization:

- Has actual knowledge of the information;
- Acts in deliberate ignorance of the truth or falsity of the information; or
- Acts in reckless disregard of the truth or falsity of the information. Proof of specific intent to defraud is not required.

"Claim" includes any request for money, property, or services made to the state or any political subdivision (or to any contractor, grantee, or other recipient), where any portion of the money, property, or services requested was funded by the state or any political subdivision.

The maximum civil penalty is $10,000, per claim. Persons who violate the CFCA may be liable to the state for three times the amount of damages that the state sustains because of the violation. The court can waive penalties and reduce damages for CFCA violations if the false claims are voluntarily disclosed.

The CFCA does not apply to false claims of less than $500. Lawsuits must be filed within three years after the violation was discovered by the state or local official who is responsible for investigating the false claim (but no more than ten years after the violation was committed).

Private or Qui Tam Actions/Whistleblower Provisions

Individuals (or qui tam plaintiffs) can sue for violations of the CFCA. Individuals who bring an action under the CFCA receive between 15 and 33 percent of the amount recovered (plus reasonable costs and attorney's fees) if the state prosecutes the case, and between 25 and 50 percent (plus reasonable costs and attorney's fees) if the qui tam plaintiff litigates the case on his or her own.

An individual cannot file a lawsuit based on public information, unless he or she is the original source of the information.

The CFCA bars employers from interfering with an employee's disclosure of false claims. Employees who report fraud and consequently suffer discrimination may be awarded (1) two times their back pay plus interest, (2) reinstatement at the seniority level they would have had except for the discrimination, (3) compensation for any costs or damages they have incurred, and (4) punitive damages, if appropriate.

Liability to the State or Political Subdivision

A person or organization will be liable to the state or political subdivision for:

- Three times the amount of damages that the state or local government sustains because of the false claims violations;
- The costs of a civil suit for recovery of damages; and
- A civil penalty of up to $10,000 for each false claim.

Certain Actions Barred

An individual cannot bring a qui tam suit based on allegations in a civil suit or an administrative proceeding in which the state or political subdivision is already a party. An individual cannot file a lawsuit based on the public disclosure of allegations unless he or she is the original source (e.g., an individual with direct and independent knowledge of the information on which the allegations are based). Public disclosure includes disclosure in a criminal, civil, or administrative hearing; in an investigation, report, hearing, or audit conducted by or at the request of the Senate, Assembly, auditor, or governing body of a political subdivision; or by the news media.

Awards

If the state or political subdivision prosecutes a case initiated by a qui tam plaintiff and obtains an award or settlement, the qui tam plaintiff receives between 15 and 33 percent of the recovery (plus reasonable costs and attorney's fees), depending on his or her contribution to the case. If the state or political subdivision decides not to file a lawsuit and the qui tam plaintiff successfully litigates the action, the qui tam plaintiff receives between 25 and 50 percent of the award or settlement. Employees who participated in fraudulent activities are not guaranteed any recovery. If the court finds the defendant not guilty and the claim frivolous in a suit conducted by a qui tam plaintiff, the court may award the defendant reasonable costs and attorney fees.

Whistleblower Protection

Employers are prohibited from:

- Making or enforcing any type of rule or policy that prevents an employee from disclosing information to a government or law enforcement agency, or from investigating, initiating, testifying, or otherwise assisting in a false claims action; or
- Discharging, demoting, suspending, threatening, harassing, denying promotion to, or in any other manner discriminating against an employee because of his or her involvement in a false claims action.

Liability of Employer

- An employer who interferes with an employee's disclosure of false claims will be liable to the employee for all relief necessary to make the employee whole, including:
- Reinstatement with the same seniority status that the employee would have had except for the discrimination;
- Two times the amount of back pay plus interest;
- Compensation for any special damage sustained as a result of the discrimination; and punitive damages where appropriate.

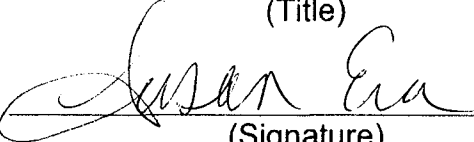

Limitations on Eligibility of Employees for Damages

If an employee's conduct has resulted in a false claim being submitted to the state or a political subdivision, and the employee has been discriminated against by his or her employer, he or she is entitled to remedies only if he or she voluntarily disclosed information to a government or law enforcement agency or assisted in a false claims action; and was coerced (either through harassment, threats of termination demotion, or other coercive actions) by the employer or its management into committing the fraudulent activity in the first place.

Medi-Cal PII is information directly obtained in the course of performing an administrative function on behalf of Medi-Cal, such as determining Medi-Cal eligibility or conducting IHSS operations, that can be used alone, or in conjunction with any other information, to identify a specific individual. PII includes any information that can be used to search for or identify individuals, or can be used to access their files, such as name, social security number, date of birth, driver's license number or identification number. PII may be electronic or paper.

AGREEMENTS

NOW THEREFORE, County and the Contractor mutually agree as follows:

I. Privacy and Confidentiality

- A. Contractors may use or disclose Medi-Cal PII only to perform functions, activities or services directly related to the administration of the Medi-Cal program in accordance with Welfare and Institutions Code section 14100.2 and 42 Code of Federal Regulations section 431.300 et.seq, or as required by law.

Disclosures which are required by law, such as a court order, or which are made with the explicit written authorization of the Medi-Cal client, are allowable. Any other use or disclosure of Medi-Cal PII requires the express approval in writing of DHCS. Contractor shall not duplicate, disseminate or disclose Medi-Cal PII except as allowed in the Agreement.

- B. Access to Medi-Cal PII shall be restricted to only contractor personnel who need the Medi-Cal Pii to perform their official duties in connection with the administration of the Medi-Cal program.

New employees will receive privacy and security awareness training from Contractor within 30 days of employment and receive regular reminders throughout their employment. This information will be recorded in employee records with dates of each training/reminder. These records are to be retained and available for inspection for a period of three years after completion of the training/reminders.

III. Management Oversight and Monitoring

The Contractor agrees to establish and maintain ongoing management oversight and quality assurance for monitoring workforce compliance with the privacy and security safeguards in this Agreement when using or disclosing Medi-Cal PII and ensure that ongoing management oversight includes periodic self-assessments.
