

Alarming COVID-19 surge in Tahoe linked to tourists; El Dorado County calls emergency meeting

Read more here: <https://www.sacbee.com/news/coronavirus/article244049067.html#storylink=cpy>
The El Dorado County Board of Supervisors will hold an emergency meeting Thursday to confront a troubling surge in coronavirus cases in the Tahoe region that officials have linked to businesses and tourists not following mask and social-distancing recommendations.

Read more here: <https://www.sacbee.com/news/coronavirus/article244049067.html#storylink=cpy>
<https://www.sacbee.com/news/coronavirus/article244049067.html>

Northern California county will issue fines up to $10,000 to businesses not requiring masks

Read more here:
<https://www.sacbee.com/news/coronavirus/article244068517.html#intcid=connatix#storylink=cpy>
With coronavirus cases rising, Yolo County on Tuesday passed an urgency ordinance giving county code officers the authority to fine businesses up to $10,000 for refusing to comply with state and county safety measures, including not requiring patrons to wear masks and allowing indoor dining.

Read more here:
<https://www.sacbee.com/news/coronavirus/article244068517.html#intcid=connatix#storylink=cpy>
<https://www.sacbee.com/news/coronavirus/article244068517.html#intcid=connatix>