COUNTY COUNSEL ABSENT 2:01 P.M. – 2:10 P.M.

Board Directive: GENERAL CONSENSUS OF THE BOARD, that in respect to recommendations from the Cannabis Economic Development Ad Hoc Committee Memo item numbers 1 through 5, the Board supports the following recommendations:

1). The Board of Supervisors support this recommendation and directs Staff to initiate discussions with Mendocino Coast Park and Recreation District to determine if there's interest in having a portion of their property becoming an "Innovation Zone." Staff shall also investigate which one or two areas in Round Valley, Laytonville, Anderson Valley, South Coast, or North State Street might be appropriate areas for "Opportunity zones"; 2). The Board of Supervisors support this recommendation with the clarification regarding Temporary Special Events – that should a permitted facility be approved by the County for recreation or community events, the approval process would be ministerial, or at most, require Zoning Permit Administrator (only if the venue approves and meets County requirements); 3). The Board of Supervisors support this recommendation; 4). The Board of Supervisors support this recommendation and directs Staff to work with local stakeholders and contractors on a plan for promoting Cannabis and Canna-tourism with branding and marketing "County of Origin"; and 5). The Board of Supervisors support this recommendation and directs staff to work with County Counsel to determine how this could be feasible, and return to the Board of Supervisors for consideration.
