

support the Memo submitted to you by the Covelo Cannabis Advocacy group.

A hemp pilot program plays a very serious threat to the medicinal cannabis growers of Mendocino which is already an established business and source for a significant amount of tax money for the county. Don't betray your constituents and allow acres of hemp to be grown here.

--

Joey Gothelf