AN ORDINANCE AMENDING
CHAPTER 6.04 OF THE
MENDOCINO COUNTY CODE
REGARDING COUNTY BUSINESS
LICENSE REQUIREMENTS

This ordinance amends portions of Mendocino County Code Chapter 6.04 for the purpose of removing uncertainty and creating efficiency and consistency. The amendments clarify and articulate which entities must obtain County business licenses; amend language for internal consistency and clarity; amend provisions for consistency with state law and with current practices of the Tax Collector; add exemption provisions for yard sales, County contractors, and for people that are carrying out business activities for a business that possesses a valid County business license; soften the requirement to exhibit a license to people other than County employees; and create more options for the County regarding enforcement.

The proposed ordinance is scheduled for adoption on October 2, 2018.
