

PROCLAMATION OF THE
MENDOCINO COUNTY BOARD OF SUPERVISORS
RECOGNIZING MARCH 2019 AS
“WOMEN’S HISTORY MONTH”
IN MENDOCINO COUNTY

WHEREAS, in March 1983 the first Women’s History Gala Celebration in Mendocino County was held in the Anderson Valley High School, thereafter, each year it has been held in the City of Ukiah, the seat of Mendocino County, with the March 3, 2019 celebration marking its 35th anniversary; and

WHEREAS, the Mendocino Women’s Political Caucus (MWPC) presents the Women’s History Gala Celebration with the American Association of University Women-Ukiah and the Ukiah Saturday Afternoon Club; and

WHEREAS, the aforementioned women’s organizations continue to work to increase and acknowledge the roles of women at all levels of community and public service, and to become knowledgeable about issues that affect their equality and to foster networks that extend and expand the creative, social, and political strength of women; and

WHEREAS, promoting and celebrating the equality and achievements of all women continue to be at the core of this 2019 celebration of Women’s History, the tradition of the annual Women’s History Gala Celebration is to recognize and honor particular women who exemplify each year’s designated theme for contributions in their communities through their fields of work; and

WHEREAS, on Sunday, March 3, 2019 the public is invited to attend the 36th Annual Women’s History Gala Celebration at the Saturday Afternoon Clubhouse starting at Noon. Women to be honored who embody this year’s theme: "Visionary Women: Champions of Peace & Nonviolence" are: Annie Esposito, Maggie Norton, and Madge Strong.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Board of Supervisors of the County of Mendocino, hereby proclaims March 2019, as:

“Women’s History Month”
