

Good morning,

Thank you for including farming, ranching and affiliated agricultural businesses in the category of “essential businesses” within the SIP order that was released yesterday. I have heard from a number of our members and they are appreciative.

We will continue to work to distribute information regarding COVID-19 to our members so that they can continue to be proactive.

Thank you again

Devon Jones