

To the Boars of Supervisors;

I am writing you this letter in regards to your recent mandate about worship restrictions you have imposed on christians gathering to sing and worship to Our Lord God. I find it highly questionable that you squash the constitution of these great United States of America. And most of all the 1st amendment granting the citizens the freedom of religion. And their ways of worshiping. I find it outright appalling and stand beside my brothers and sisters in Christ. If they are following the Federal guidelines for social distancing and covid-19 practices. You in way have the right to supersede the US federal government mandates, laws and regulations. Least of all the US Constitution. I think you need to read and understand both the Constitution as well as the Bill of Rights. States do not cancel out the Federal Government in any way shape or form. Please reconsider and rescind you recent orders to mandate how an online worship service can and will be conducted.

Sincerely Scott M. Morich
