

Hello,

I would appreciate if you would seriously consider allowing easing the Stay in Place restrictions. Allow us to move around and let businesses and churches reopen. I agree that we all still need to be cautious and believe that we are familiar with how to be careful. Perhaps we must continue to be cautious. Our economy is hurting, businesses are closed, people are hurting for lack of a job, governments are hurting from dwindling taxes.

Dorothy Cong