

well, you folks sure got the attention of coastal residents for this weekend's onslaught

Dick's Place ( bar ) in Mendocino is closing until further notice ( a very polite post was posted without malice )

the Welcome Inn in Fort Bragg ( the only open bar I think ? ) is closing for the weekend restaurants are cutting back on scale of operation to streamline flow of traffic etc.

I know of 1 20 year anniversary party that is now family only and tiny

I know of a few live music events that have been cancelled

I have heard of no plans to intentionally violate orders etc.

I will be out on the coast trail Saturday afternoon for a look about and be keeping a close eye elsewhere of course we are well aware the state means business on taking us back to March.....

thank you
