

Dear Supervisors,

I recently read in the AVA that the BOS is considering relaxing some environmental protections in regard to the cultivation of cannabis.

If this is true, I want to voice my opposition to such a plan. While I support the legalization of cannabis, I'm also concerned about its environmental impact, especially in regard to water consumption. I support leaving the current regulations intact, and not doing anything to weaken them.

Thanks for all your hard work,
Adrian Card