

The cell phone service on Pine Mountain is spotty at best. I routinely experience dropped calls.

The list of recent calls on my cell phone show many with a number in parentheses to the right indicating consecutive attempts to have a complete conversation.

A local tower would provide reliable, modern technology that is currently lacking in the area. Please make this a reality. We really need it.

Thanks for your attention to this matter.

James Mitchell, Pine Mountain resident.