

I am a Mendocino county resident and my family has been living in this area since my great grandparents. We are against rezoning areas to accommodate cannabis growing as it is disruptive to those who love their home how it is. Production activity, nefarious criminal behavior and odors, to name a few, are not conducive to a tranquil family home. Thank you for taking the time to consider our perspective.

- Naomi Mills