

I think we should keep the current make-up of the planning commission. I like the intent of Section 2.48.010.

We are a resource based county and this makes perfect sense.

Other counties may have a different commission make-up and it may work for those counties. I think our county is unique and this has been a good design that has worked well for us.

Please keep the current structure.

Thank you.

Ted Stephens

Yorkville