

I strongly oppose any revisions to the current regulations on cannabis growing in my neighborhood. We fought long and hard to enact these restrictions. Specifically, the Rogina Heights area has been a safe and secure, odor free neighborhood. And any changes to current regulations is anathema.

Beatrix Robinson