

to whom it may concern,

please end your funding/contact with the so named wildlife services. when this planet is suffering from climate change and over population/encroachment from humans on wild lands we must make ever effort to protect our precious wild life. put your minds and expertise to work on how to live with and protect and not kill those species that have a place on this planet.

thank you from a person that lives surrounded by wildlife.
jeannette gavin