

As an annual visitor to Mendocino, I write to urge you to end the county's contract with the lethal integrated wildlife damage management program through USDA Wildlife Services. Such a beautiful county should not support unethical killing practices, and should instead create a locally administered non-lethal program to manage wildlife damage.

Thank you.

Patti Breitman

Fairfax CA 94930

Why not try a vegan meal today? Nobody will be hurt.