

To the Board of Supervisors,

You all must be out of your minds to even consider expanding the already questionable cannabis cultivation zoning. The Willits valley is a mess of unsightly hoop houses and the once fresh air is disgusting and skunky at harvest. And who is going to get all the water? It sounds suspiciously like someone is being paid off. You are supposed to be acting in a way that benefits the MAJORITY of the citizens.

Victor Hanson
Willits