

I am writing to encourage the board to retain the USDA wildlife services. As agriculture seems to be slowly disappearing, the service are very important to the ones of us that are still trying to make a living raising livestock. This service is essential to the county and its agriculture. Please do the right thing and closely review this matter and make the right decision for the livestock producers. Thank you for your consideration.

Christine Clark
Justin Reilly
Clark-Reilly Ranch