We are planning a children's bilingual stories zoom event to take place on April 30, 2021. It will be on zoom because our library system will most probably not yet be able to hold in-person events. Presenters are two teachers in the California Poets in the Schools program: poet/artist Blake More of Point Arena and former poet laureate of Ukiah, Jabez William Churchill. There will also be a craft where children can create a simple collage artwork illustrating their response to one of the stories presented during the program.

Describe the targeted audience for your Día event(s). Please include any statistics you have on ethnicities and languages spoken in your communities: *

Our targeted audience is elementary school age and early middle school children of all local ethnicities: hispanic, indian, black, asian, and white. <https://worldpopulationreview.com/us-cities/point-arena-ca-population>
