

No. We don't want Big Grow in this county. There is no water and it will be too much of a negative thing. Besides, the small growers need to get by and make a living I guess.

Larry Alexander