

Please do not allow our fragile range lands to be used for cannabis farms. Already we have little water and the soil is poor. This means massive inputs for a crop we don't need. It is criminal to even think of it.
Miriam Raphael