

Please deal with current issues with cannabis regulations before creating more problems.
The current maze of regulations for legacy growers is creating more black market cannabis problems instead of solving the problems they were intended to fix.
The public must be allowed to vote on the 10 percent rule.

I have lived in this county for more than forty years and I know that the expansion you are proposing is not wanted by a vast majority of the public.

Regards,

Mickey Pope