

I am a resident of Willits and a long time cultivator. I am in opposition of the 10% expansion of cannabis cultivation permits. Mendocino county has been traditionally supported by small family legacy cannabis farms. A 10% expansion would invite corporate non residents to land grab to exploit that expansion and further add to the distress of so many local small growers that have been continuously squeezed out, and prices out of what has been their only source of livelihood.

Theresa Simmonds
Brooktrails resident