

According to the attachment entitled “Mendocino County Psychiatric Health Facility,” “Several sites had been considered which included Old Howard Hospital, the County’s Orchard Street parcel(s), and a potential ranch parcel.”

Question: Why wasn’t the Adventist’s former Emergency Room on Hospital Drive mentioned and considered? We recall that the Adventists had previously expressed interest in a PHF operation at that site in the past.

Thank you.

Mark Scaramella, Boonville