

Haschak absolutely right about stacking permits. That is what Henry's Original does. Staff doesn't want to do the research to prevent it. They and their attorneys are more savvy than the county. CEO doesn't live here and constantly complaining he cannot keep up with Santa Barbara. His parent company is CannaRoyalty of Ottawa Canada. They targeting the aquifer in Laytonville. He keeps far ahead of your perceived protections. Always has and has been manipulating the system since 2015.

Haschak is RIGHT!
