

This message is to register my stunned disbelief, that in this year of record drought and extreme fire danger, you would even CONSIDER slashing the Firesafe council funds!

I urge you to reconsider and find other ways to meet fiscal needs. Prevention is ALWAYS less expensive than trying to mop up after a disaster. Being fiscally responsible and maintaining the public trust means investing in prevention.

Sincerely,

Pamela Levin, RN