Interests & Experiences

Special Expertise, Experience, or Interest in This Area?

I'm a registered professional forester, retired from Cal Fire with 32 years of state government experience. I am currently serving as a forestry consultant, tour and school bus driver, event planner, and member of the Fort Bragg City Council. My expertise is in forest and land use planning, fire prevention, reforestation, fish habitat restoration, erosion control planning, recreation planning, carbon sequestration grants, and I have long career full of grant/contract management. I also have expertise in fiscal and accounting procedures, as well as familiarization with road building, broadband, heavy equipment, and computer software technology. I will provide a resume if required.
