Letters were sent to CalFire, Cal OES and Governor Brown expressing the Board of Supervisors gratitude to the respective agencies for their timely and effective responses to the explosive fire conditions that erupted in Potter and Redwood Valleys on the night of October 8, 2017; and their continued leadership and commitment to the ongoing recovery efforts in Mendocino County. As there was an event planned for Saturday, October, 28, 2017, that included representatives from the various agencies involved, it was determined that presenting these letters of appreciation at the event would be appropriate, and therefore, it is requested that the Board of Supervisors ratify accordingly.
