Bragg. MCHC is an identified contracted provider for the Mental Health Block Grant, serving individuals that meet grant requirements. Block grant funds pay for serving numerous clients within the MCHC Café Vocational & Support Program, including program supplies, insurance, utilities, and staffing costs. Through the proposed Agreement, MCHC will continue to provide casework, case management, outreach, treatment for serious mental illness, and access to additional services as needed for clients experiencing homelessness who have a dual diagnosis (mental health and substance abuse).
