Summary of Request:

The MPAR Project expended $138,814 of Grant #BSCC-609-14 ($220,000) in year one of the three year grant cycle. The carry forward of $81,186 must be spent in year two before the year two Grant #BSCC-609-15 allocation of $297,028 of the JAG grant is spent. Grant #BSCC-609-15 Amendment One includes the carry forward of $81,186 in addition to the year two allocation of $207,028 bringing the total ward to be spent in year two to $288,214.

The JAG grant project under the MPAR group is a collaborative grant involving County Departments, the Courts and Community Based Organizations (CBO's). Partners include the Sheriff Office as the lead agency, Superior Court, District Attorney, Public Defender, Probation, Manzanita Services, Mendocino County AIDS Viral Hepatitis Network and Mendocino Coast Hospitality Center.

MPAR is working to decrease recidivism by working closely with the Behavioral Health Court whose purpose is to provide mental health treatment and ancillary services to criminal defendants who have a diagnosed serious mental illness or cognitive impairment that is a substantial factor in their criminal conduct. The overall goal is to reduce recidivism by stabilizing mentally ill individuals.
