To: Board of Supervisors

From: Supervisor Haschak

Meeting Date: August 31, 2021

Department Contact: Supervisor Haschak

Phone: 463-4441

Item Type: Regular Agenda

Time Allocated for Item: 30 Minutes

Agenda Title:

Discussion and Possible Action Including Direction to Staff to Take Appropriate Steps to Transfer Animal Control Services from the Sheriff's Office to Animal Care
(Sponsor: Supervisor Haschak)

Recommended Action/Motion:

Direct staff to take appropriate steps including hiring, transfer of assets and responsibilities, and development of policies and procedures for the transition of Animal Control Services currently under the Sheriff's Office to Animal Care.

Previous Board/Board Committee Actions:

None

Summary of Request:

Providing both Animal Care and Animal Control services under the Animal Care Department will provide for greater efficiencies and a unified approach to animal care and control. This is desired by Sheriff Kendall and Director of Animal Care Rich Molinari. With greater streamlining of effort and a unified approach to issues related to the care and control of animals, Mendocino County will be better prepared to handle the many animal care and control situations that arise.

Alternative Action/Motion:

Provide alternative direction to staff.
