Recommended Action/Motion:

Adopt Resolution Approving the Request to Sell Tax-Defaulted Property Subject to the Tax Collector's Power to Sell; and authorize Chair to sign same.

Previous Board/Board Committee Actions:

Board of Supervisors approves Resolutions annually; last Board approval was March 7, 2017

Summary of Request:

Under California law, after a period of five years from the first year of tax-default, during which time the assessee retains the legal title to the property and has the privilege of redeeming it upon payment of the amount due, the tax collector records a Notice of Power to Sell Tax-Defaulted Property. Such property is subject to redemption as long as the property is not sold at auction. The tax collector has the authority to sell the tax-defaulted property at public auction, the minimum price at which property may be offered for sale, pursuant to Revenue and Taxation Code §3698.5(a), is an amount not less than the total amount necessary to redeem, plus costs.

Any parcels remaining unsold may be re-offered at a new sale within ninety (90) days of the original sale date, pursuant to Revenue and Taxation Code §3692(e), with the option to offer the remaining parcels at a reduced minimum price, pursuant to Revenue and Taxation Code §3698.5(c).

The fact that anyone should lose their property for non-payment of property taxes is regrettable. The State of California property tax laws, however, afford landowners and parties of interest fair notice, a liberal period of redemption, and adequate opportunities to contest irregularities. The primary purpose of public auction sales is to collect the unpaid taxes and to return the property to a revenue-generating status by conveying the property to another owner. Offering property for sale achieves this by either selling the property or forcing redemption.

Per Revenue and Taxation Code §3692(a), the tax collector shall attempt to sell tax-defaulted property within four (4) years of the time that the property becomes subject to sale for non-payment of taxes. If there are no acceptable bids at the attempted sale, the tax collector shall attempt to sell the property at intervals of no more than six (6) years until the property is sold.
